Verdant Hartwick Papers
(Cassett Library)

Glenn McDuffie believed that this John and a Daniel McDuffie, whom he believes to be the father of Murdoch who married Abigail Curry, were brothers, CC Spring 1979, page 15. Page 16 suggests that Daniel-638 (Mrs Dickerr's ancestor) was his son in Georgia; HFM has added Daniel to John's line as his eldest son (if correct, he was named for John-350's grandfather, as I have the line now, although I have a residual question concerning the marital ties of Anne Dallas, whom I believe was first married in Scotland to a John and somehow came to NC to be in Duncan's relative's home etc.

"The Reconstructed 1790 Census of GA—Substitute for Georgia's lost 1790 Census" DeLamar and Rothstein (McClung) pages 62, 141, 143 has references to a Jno McDuffee; Columbia Co. Muster Roll 1793; Richmond Co. Headrights and county Grants 1790-1795; and Richmond Co. Land Court Held 1786 and 1787 (Jno McDuffie). HFM takes these as all referring to John-350. McD.40

JGD-62 suggests that John may have had three wives; Jane, recorded as the mother of George; a second named Mary Ann, who signed deed with John in 1794; and a third, just plain Mary, who would be the mother of James Neal McDuffie, b. 1808. "Records indicate that John and Mary, and a female named Christia, possibly a daughter by Jane, may have moved to Washington Co. GA about 1820 and that John died there between 1825 and 1830. There was also a Malcom who was also in that county in 1820 and may have been a brother to George; this may be the Malcom-2842 who left a will in Franklin Co. GA in 1861. (HFM notes in 1994 information from Bill Thompson that John McDuffie received land in Franklin County, GA in May 1784—order to surveyor to lay out land that had been purchased; GA Surveyor General Dept) Glenn later opined that there were two Malcoms in GA and that the one with John-350 had moved to Telfair county in 1830 and was there in 1850 at age 77.

!BIRTH-MARRIAGE-CHILDREN: JGA-81 is FGR from Glen McDuffie and notes from a Pearl Baker indicating that Jane was first wife and Mary Ann Gilmore was second wife; 8 children listed with info on many of them. (See McD-578)

!RELATIONSHIP: A typed 5x7 card from Glenn McDuffie (McD-577) says that John of GA had a brother Geo and was a nephew of Duncan of Cumberland (Est 1806). At present, we don't show that John-350 had a brother, George. We need to look at the 1806 estate record or will.

!LAND: McD-378 reports on the sale of family property in 1794 by a John and wife Mary Ann; so where did he go after that and before about 1820 when he may have moved to Washington Co. GA.?

!COMMENT-CONFLICT: Clan Chatter, Winter-1977 page 11-12 suggests that Robert McDuffie of Kentucky was a brother to Gov. George. We have Robert in the MidMcD data file but have not connected. Glenn McDuffie, in the article, refers to conversations with Thomas McDuffie of Waltham, Mass

!CHILDREN: A petition of 7 April 1784 was written on behalf of headrights of himself, his wife, and two children, for 250 acres in (not clear) Franklin Washington (new counties being opened). John's petition was written in Richmond county. We have McDuffie lines from Franklin county; Washington county is southwest of Richmond and Franklin is northwest. At least this establishes that he had a wife and two children in 1784.

THERE IS AN ORGANIZATION CHARTERED 1962 ENTITLED MACDUFFIE-MACPHEE CLANS OF AMERICA. THEY PUT THIS MATERIAL OUT.

NOTES FOR JOHN MCDUFFIE

18 Nov 1994

!Info from Glenn McDuffie. This is John of Columbia Co. Ga. (Augusta area)
 He had two marriages at least. He is said to have had a large family.

!Alice VeSeyce McDuffie says John came to America in 1770, settled in GA on land grant from George II, England, had five children by his first wife Jane Gilmore. See Lib #58 for correspondence on line. Considerable detail.
 !See also JGA-77.

!application of Myrtle Armstrong, A-102 says they think Duncan was son of John and Jane McDuffie, settled 40 miles west of Augusta, now McDuffie County. (does this mean John and Jane settled there or Duncan settled there—deed records might show.)

Question: How could this John McDuffie, born 1750, be the son of John-974?
 If John-974 was born about 1730 it could be possible. He, however, was not mentioned in John-974's will, tho he was alive.
 His mother would have been the unknown wife of John McDuffie (RIN 974) who was the son of Dnl McFee and Sarah McNeill. Question:: would John at age 20 have come to America in 1770 with his father and grandfather? If grandfather was born in 1697, he would have been 73 years old on arrival. Was John (RIN 350) really born in Scotland or is this family lore only. In 1773, a John McDuffie was a chain carrier for Daniel Jr (Fred Kent letter of May 3, 1971) and he could easily have been 23 years old at that time. Fred thought that Daniel had come over in 1747 with Neill McNeill's group and that Daniel (Donald) was the big wheel of the group. He could have been age 50 and have brought his son, John (RIN 974) with him, with John (350) having been born in America.
 !CC Jan-Mar 1976 suggests there may be records in the Library at Thomson, GA that are relevant.

RE: MCMILLAN

The McMillans were a Celtic monastic family with a royal line in their coat-of-arms. Edward McMillan came to America in 1802 from the island, Skye, on the Duke of Kent. They landed in the NY area, went by covered wagons to Virginia, North & South Carolina, and settled in Enverness, GA. They built a Presbyterian Church and School there and named it Scotland. They helped each other build homes.

His children were all born in Brooke County, Alabama.

wife was

When John Evander was 21, he and 2 brothers came on horseback to Portland and worked for the McCombs for 3-4 years. Then they bought 320 acres of land at Mist and others of his family came to help them. Martha Irene Beasley was born 1854 and when she was 1 year old, her family brought her to the Mist area. These married and their children were:

John Edward born 12-20th 1881

Olga 83 died 1908

Constance Olivia 84 1965

Mary 86 1887

Candace Brooxye 87 1968

Angus Franklin 89 1982

Blanche 90 1937

my father ——— Charles Bethune 92 1942

Nancy Virginia 94 1973

Mother Martha and baby Mary died of typhoid fever in 1908

They were all active in the Presbyterian Church and John Evander operated a general store in Mist. It burned and instead of rebuilding he turned to farming. He died July 6, 1933.

These are the correct names of my Dad's family. His mother was Martha Irene Beasley (not Mary as I told you). I will get the other soon. Thanks for all your time for us in this area.

Earl was my grandfather and I gave you the rest from there. Polly taught Earl's son, Pete, how to make lye water out of ashes in a barrel, with rain water.

Jason was the one old timers said was tall and lean, carried a pistol all the time and if he didn't like someone, he would shoot them. Besides Earl, these two had a son Henry, girls Mary Ann (Miller), Louisa (O'neal), Ella (yount), Attie (Ginn and later Bell). Polly's girl-hood was in northern Louisiana somewhere around the little town of Galion, south of Bonita. There was a little river named "Galion" where they would swim, fish and swing across on grape-vines.

Earl married Kate Williams. I also gave you the other names of that clan, except for Mary Ellen. She married a Hill first, then a Moncrief. She was born July 27, 1877, and died Apr. 28, 1936. She is the grandmother of Jack Edwards and Mary Streeter, both of Montrose.

Earl told of courting Kate out at Nanny, where they would walk along a little creek in front of the Hathaway house and ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ Earl would push Kate toward the creek, so he would have an excuse to grab her, to keep her from falling in. Most Christmasses, they would load up the wagon and go to Aunt Nanny's for Christmas, never to any other aunts or uncle. One time when Gertie was real little, they got her a crying doll for Santa and were in the buggy going the 17-mile trip to Nanny's. When the buggy wheel would hit a rut, shaking the buggy, the doll, hidden in a box or sack, would cry and Gertie would hear it. They told her it was a cricket or frog beside the road.

If you are interested--my grandfather was one of the most outstanding law-enforcement officers ever. This is his picture made in 1910, age 22, deputy sheriff of Ashley County. He served under Sheriffs Floyd Walker, Hogan Oliver, W. M. Chavis, L. W. Dew, John C. Riley, maddered in Mont. and B. A. Coursen for a total of 44 years. (I would like to have the picture back at your convenience of him, Earl Hill.)

I know you are not all interested in this, but wanted to pass it on to you and you can see what you want. I remember lots of tales I could tell about my Hill grandparents but most of it concerned Hamburg, so that's why I didn't. I do remember a murder in Portland and he walked around the house one time and logically knew exactly what happened that no one else had noticed. I can tell you about that some time. If I can be of further help, please let me know, and thanks again for all you are doing. I can't wait for my Christmas list one year soon to be taken care of easily!!!!!!!!!!!!

PP1
I am perfectly satisfied with what you wrote but thought I would tell you this bit more I found out just for your own information. The McMillans were one of the Celtic Monastic families who bore the royal lion in their Coat of Arms. They landed in New York and after a period of time left by covered wagon and traveled thru Virginia, N. and S. Carolina to Forsythe, GA and finally settled at Inverness, AS. They named the community Scotland (not the church as I told you.) They helped each other build homes.

Look at your 3rd paragraph - PP2
Edward married Flora McKay and their son, John Alexander married Margaret McKinnon. To them were born nine children. They were Daniel Murdock (~~4-3-1846~~), Martha Ann (10-10-1847), John Evander (7-17-1849), Duncan Alexander (10-22-1851), Nancy Florella (4-4-1854) Angus Rodveck (2-18-1856), William Luachlin (12-30-1860), Edward A. (4-6-1862) and Frances Murdock (3-18-1864). All children were born in Bullock County, Alabama.

PP3
At the age of 21, John Evander and two brothers, Ed and Angus, came on horseback to Portland, where they worked for McCombs at Thebes for 3-4 years. After John saved enough he bought a 320 acre farm at what became the community of Mist. His sister, Martha Ann, and her husband, Archie Wilkerson, came to Arkansas after their marriage in 1872. The brothers were Duncan, Angus and Edward and they all became farmers in that area.

John and his sons farmed together until they were grown and found other work. He also operated a general store at Mist from 1902 until it burned in 1909.

I told you about my Dad named Charles. He had a brother named Ed who came to Parkdale in 1920 as a rural mail carrier and stayed in that position until his death in 1937 from a ruptured appendix. Ed attended school at Wilmar for his high school education. He married Maggie Terry Collier 1-4-1911 in Snyder. She was the daughter of Thomas Anderson and Mary Octavia Terry Collier and they lived at Chattanooga, TN at that time. They met when Maggie visited her aunt who lived near the McMillans at Mist. Thomas Anderson was born May 30, 1855 and was the first white child born in Comanche County Texas.

One of Daddy's sisters, Brooxye lived her entire life on Pine Prairie in Mist and Promise Land. She married Prentis Smith and they had 4 children. Max, (1-11-14, Margaret Irene (Moore) 6-17-17, James Roy 5-1-19, and Bruce Aubrey 12-31-22. They were descendants of a strong and rugged people who came to the US from the British Isles and Western Europe. Prentis and Brooxye were farmers. The land was not fertile, however, the yield from the principle crops of cotton, corn, potatoes and peanuts was reasonably good. As the row crops required intensive hand labor, the children learned the meaning of work at an early age. They also grew sorghum and sugar cane which was processed in a mill. Hog killing time was an annual ritual. Brooxye's brother, Angus, a big and powerful Scotsman, entertained everyone with tall tales and exhibitions of strength. They also operated a dairy for several years selling milk, cream and butter over a route from Snyder to Hamburg. They took over the farm when John Evander retired.
